From Tuesday October 12, to Saturday October 16, 1756.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 13th Day of October 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant October: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the same should be continued for some longer Time, — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th of this Instant October, (being the Expiration of the Time limited by His Majesty's aforesaid Order in Council) presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, entitled, "An Act to impower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre;" and to enforce the Law for "impowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and also to impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

Petersburgh, September 11. Yesterday being the Feast of St. Alexander Newsky, the same was celebrated at Court with the usual Formalities. On this Occasion her Imperial Majesty came here from Czarkazelo, and assisted at Divine Service in the Chapel of the Palace; after which she dined in Publick with the Knights of that Order, and at Night there was a Supper and a Ball at Court.

Naples, Sept. 14. The Report that prevailed some Time since of the Death of the Princess Maria-Josepha, their Majesties eldest Daughter, was without Foundation, that Princess being perfectly recovered from her Indisposition.

Milan, Sept. 18. This Morning the Battallions ordered to be detached from the Regiments in Garrison at Mantua, began their March for Bohemia, and are to be successively followed by others from the different Garrisons in that Dutchy. The whole Number of Troops to be sent from thence amounts to about 7000, including Holi's Regiment of Dragoons.

Prague, Sept. 26. Yesterday, and the Day before, several Battallions of Croats marched through this City to join the Imperial Army under the Command of Prince Piccolomini.

Madrid, Sept. 27. On Thursday the 23d Instant, their Catholick Majesties were complimented by all the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, on Occasion of it's being the King's Birth Day, which was celebrated in the usual Manner; and at Night a new Opera, called La Niteti, was performed. Count Rosembergh, the Imperial Minister appointed to reside at this Court, arrived here some Days ago; and his Predecessor, Count Migazzi, set out this Morning on his Return to Vienna.

Turin, Sept. 29. On Saturday last the 25th, his Sardinian Majesty, with the rest of the Royal Family, left Turin, in order to reside at the Venerie till the Beginning of December. The same Morning the Count Tana was declared Governor of Coni; and the Count Montault, Governor of Fenestrelles; Count Maffet was appointed Colonel of the Regiment of Piemont; and Count St. Sebastien, Son of the Marquis of Spins, Colonel of that of Aost. Some other inferior Military Promotions were made, occasioned by the Removal of these Officers from their different Corps. The King of Sardinia has named the Chevalier St. Peyre, one of the first Equeries of his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, to be his Ambassador at the Court

[Price Two-Pence.]

Court of Madrid, in the room of the Baron of Blonay, whose bad State of Health has long made him solicit to be recalled.

Brussels, Oct. 12. According to the Advices received Yesterday from Paris, the March of the French Troops, which were to be assembled under the Command of the Prince de Soubise, at Pfaltzbourg, is suspended till further Orders. The Austrians are not yet in Motion, nor have they yet received their last Orders for Marching. M. d'Affry arrived here on Sunday Evening, and proceeded Yesterday Morning on his Journey to the Hague.

General Post-Office, October 2, 1756.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail, dispatched from this Office upon Tuesday the 28th of September, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, was, on Thursday last, the 30th of the same Month, about half an Hour past Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, in a Lane between Coal Alton and Little Norton, in the County of Derby, by Two Men on Foot, who took from him and carried away the Mail, containing the Bag of Letters from London to Sheffield, and likewise the Bag containing the Bye and Cross-Road Letters, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, as also four Shillings and Sixpence from the said Post-Boy.

The two Persons who committed this Robbery are described as middle sized Men, and wearing, the one of them a blue Coat and white Waistcoat, and the other a light-coloured Frock; one of them was pitted with the Small-Pox, and the other had a Mark upon one Hand, as if the same had been cut.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the two Persons who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby both, or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General, George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Viſtualling Office, October 6, 1756.

The Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 17th of November next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are inclinable to undertake the Viſtualling such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as shall arrive at Hull, and be in Want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Viſtualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Hull.

Viſtualling-Office, October 11, 1756.

The Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 8th of December next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are inclinable to undertake the Viſtualling such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as shall arrive at Leith, Leith Road, and Firth of Edinburgh, and be in want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Viſtualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Leith.

Custom-House, London, Oct. 15, 1756.

The Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he will be ready, on the 25th of October instant, and the Four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that were presented to the Commissioners between the 27th of April 1756, exclusive, and the 11th of May following, inclusive, and which became due between the 27th of July 1756, exclusive, and the 11th of August following, inclusive, without Interest.

The said Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Case any of the said Debentures shall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Interest will be paid thereon.

London, October 12, 1756.

The Commissioners appointed for Sale of all the French Ships taken before the Declaration of War do hereby desire all Persons who have any Papers in their Custody belonging to the said Ships, to deliver them to Thomas Tyndall, Esq; His Majesty's Proctor, in Doctors Commons; to Mr. Thomas Mangels in Plymouth; to Mr. James Bucknall in Portsmouth; or to their Secretary, at the Prize Office, opposite the Mansion House.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Samuel Gardner, Secretary.

Printed by W. JOHNSTON, at the Golden-Ball, in St. Paul's Church Yard.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Knight, in Jamaica, to his Father in Birch Lane, London.

'I Have had that Fever which the People are very subject to when they first come to this Place, but having great Faith in Dr. James's Powder, I was determined to take them, and it removed my Fever in less than 48 Hours, to the great Surprise of all those who were about me. I have persuaded many to try them in that Disorder since, and with great Success; for they have done most surprizing Cures, and raised People even after they have been given over by the Physicians.'

Dr.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases)
any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms:
But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Low-ness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fever, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St.
Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Di-stempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th
Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St.
Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Venereal Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleets, are absolutely cured.

Sold at the Widow Adams's, Printer, at West-Chester; and at Mr. Gamble's, Distiller, at Gravesend; and at Mr. Brown's, Bookseller, in Christmas-street, Bristol.

G. WELTON, of Welford in Northamptonshire, Surgeon, who himself has the Stone, has made several useful and important Discoveries relating to that Disorder, and is willing to wait on any Gentleman afflicted with that Disorder, in any Part of the Kingdom, to communicate his Discoveries. Among others is that of making Water easily and freely without passing any Instrument into the Bladder; though, before he made these Discoveries, he was hardly able to bear the least shaking of a Horse, yet, since then, (which is now near a Twelvemonth) he rides out almost every Day, and sometimes very hard, and has never brought on so much as one Fit of the Stone.

ALL Persons who had any Claim or Demand on the Estate and Effects of Dorothy Walker, late Mercer and Draper in Whitehaven, on or before the 8th Day of February 1755, at which Time she made an Assignment of her Estate and Effects to Mr. John Todd, Attorney at Law, and Mr. William Skyrin, Merchant, both of Whitehaven aforesaid, in Trust for her Creditors, for the Purposes therein mentioned; are desired to send a Proof of their respective Debts, due at that Time, to the said John Todd, or the said William Skyrin, on or before the 20th Day of November next, when a final Dividend is intended to be made of the assign'd Effects, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of any Dividend from the same.

ALL Persons who have any Demands upon or are indebted to the Estate of Francis Ardebois, of Porter's-street, St.
Ann's Westminster, deceased, formerly Diamond Cutter, and late Grocer and Dealer in Soap, are desired to bring in an Account of their Demands, and to pay their Debts, to Mess. Du-roure and Upton, in Throgmorton-street, London, who are authorized by his Executor to adjust the same.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery the Creditors of Ramsden Barnard, late of Beverley in the County of York, Esq; deceased, are peremptorily to come in and prove their Debts before William Spicer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Lincoln's-Inn, London, on or before the 18th Day of December next, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of M^r William and Shedden, late of the City of Bristol, Bankrupts, are desired to send a Proof of their Debts to Moses Gronow, at Mrs. Roe's, in Bristol, or
